

Intermediate Dust Extractor

- Designed to extract / collect fine cement dust particles
- Reduces waste through increased visibility of content levels
- Helps comply with OH&S requirements for dust reduced environments (especially confined spaces)
- Available as an Air Driven or Electric Driven unit
- Dust Hood Attachment designed to suite all gunite and dry-shotcrete machines
- Built to withstand harsh and demanding environments

Australian designed and manufactured

2 Units Available

Air Driven:

6hp, pneumatic valve type
Airmeter complete with silencer and service kit

Electric Driven:

2hp electric motor
240V, 10 Amp, single phase, dual capacitor
5 metres of cable

Dust Hood Attachment:

Available to fit all gunite and dry-shotcrete machines. Custom made attachments available upon request.

STANDARD FEATURES

- Turbo Series Super Duty Cartridge Filter
- Heavy duty quick release lid for easy filter removal
- Cylindrical collection centre, complete with integral reuse access panel
- 20 Litre collection capacity
- High efficiency, mild pressure, curved tip centrifugal fan, with self-cleaning action
- Tightly sealed lid that can be removed for further cleaning
- Pipe connectors & fittings
- Skid mounted for portability