

FOLDING ARM AWNING BX 260

With its small dimensions, the BX 260 awning can be perfectly integrated into any façade. Its special construction with wide wall brackets allows it to be fitted onto practically any surface. It has a high quality acrylic fabric with special treatment, making it mould and dirt resistant. With an exceptionally wide choice of colours and designs, it will add the finishing touch to your home. It has a fully closed box, making it ideal for places that are exposed to the wind or rain.
