

MEDICAL TROLLEYS

OUR RANGE OF MEDICAL TROLLEYS

Promotal conducted the largest ever study on medical practices with over 200 healthcare professionals. The study revealed a growing imbalance between the supply of healthcare and the demand of the increasing number of patients. This trend is causing healthcare professionals and organizations to change their practices and their environment for added efficiency and convenience. thanks to computers, connected instruments and telemedicine. With Promotal medical trolleys, your desk, your diagnostic instruments and your communication tools are always within easy reach. to help you manage medical data and provide telehealth services.
