Description

Electric kebab slicer 100mm disc knife - KS100E

KS100E is our main (corded) electric kebab knife. This knife is highly practical and the standard model within many takeaway shops.

A necessary accessory, this electric kebab knife is the basic tool required for all kebab and takeaway food stores cutting down portions of meat, such as beef and chicken, to variable lengths.

A useful item within our gas and electric range, this electric kebab knife can be easily operated, and is a much-needed option for a variety of hospitality businesses serving meals with drawn up meat.
